

2022 Lutheran Educators Conference

Monday - Ed Camps

1:30 - 2:15

301- FREE copy/assign templates and how to make your own -Matt Miller

You know you love a good template. Grab it. Make a copy. Assign it to your students. It saves time AND can create fantastic learning experiences. In this session, you'll get a digital binder FULL of 50+ templates. We'll talk about how to use them, how to modify them, and how to make your own.

302- Have we become so results-driven that we've forgotten about relationships? Rev. Nathan Huse

We can get so caught up in accomplishing everyday tasks that we often miss that God has placed people all around us. A beautiful thing happens when we embrace a culture of relationship, discipleship, community, and empowerment over performance.

303- Myths vs. Facts - Your School Safety Questions Answered - Adam Coughran

School safety can be a complicated and confusing topic, but it doesn't have to be. With many vendors promoting school safety products ranging from software to door locks to cameras, seemingly everyone has the one solution to make your school safer. In addition, many teachers, as well as parents, have probably offered a variety of suggestions to improve campus security. Added all together, it can be an overwhelming issue in a field school administrators are not certificated in: safety and security.

Have your questions and concerns about products, policy, or just about any other safety topic answered by a national leading safety and security expert in this interactive session about school safety and security.

304- Post-pandemic Christian Education: What has changed?-Dean-o

Between school, church and home - how will kids embrace God's Word? Who is responsible? Is media-driven learning the answer? Do kids stand a chance in this "new" world? What is the role of parents? What does the next-generation K-5 curriculum look like? What is the desired outcome for the kids we minister to?

305- Finding Ways to Bring Family Literacy into Your School-Jennie Lovie

Let's actively brainstorm together how to embrace Family Literacy in our uniquely designed school or classroom settings. Together we will use collaboration, research based resources, and take away templates to design literacy activities and events.

306-Bringing Critical Thinking into Every Class Meeting -Gary Rybold

This session will be a hands-on workshop demonstrating how to use critical thinking as a system of analysis and evaluation to open all other systems. The model (from the Foundation for Critical Thinking) can be introduced on the first day of class and used throughout the term with writing and speaking assignments in small peer group collaborations and assessments. All workshop materials will be provided at the session.

Attendees are encouraged to look at the complete and free curriculum using this system of critical thinking at: www.projectcom.org

While this module stands on its own, it complements the next session at 2:30 (Increasing Public Speaking and Debating Skills through a Project Pedagogy).

307-Dramatically reduce your ELA grading and planning time!-Jon Corippo

Author Jon Corippo will be sharing tricks and tips that will make your ELA teaching "easy button" easy and also help you to have massive academic growth. Jon has taught in the K-8 and HS ELA area for nearly 20 years and will be sharing his very best tips and tricks! You'll leave with a bunch of templates you can use right away.

308-Induction Inquiry - Lori Jaeger

Seeking to clear your California teaching credential? Come to the Induction Ed Camp to learn more about the Induction program at Concordia University Irvine. The Induction program provides new teachers with a collaborative learning environment, opportunities to improve teaching strategies and promotes a variety of professional development. Meet some of our instructors, mentors and Induction students who are ready to share the big ideas surrounding the Induction process. Together we can help you understand the next steps in clearing your California preliminary credential.

309- Music Teacher Networking & Discussion -Ben Hunter

This will be an opportunity for all music teachers to meet and network. Choral Music, Classroom/General Music, Handbells, Praise Band, Instrumental Music. Come meet other music teachers and bounce ideas, teaching strategies, and lessons off each other.

310- Expanding Your School Ministry -Rev.Billy Brath

Facility & Financial Planning. Pastor Billy will walk through the theory and process to expand your school ministries. This work is central to Billy's role with LCEF and the PSD, so come ready to apply these ideas to your school and maybe take the next step.

311-Connect and Collaborate with Other Early Childhood Educators in the PSD- Mary Wolfinbarger

Come and meet other early childhood educators in our district. Hear about exciting new ways that we will be able to use technology to connect with each other and offer you resources. It will also be an opportunity to share what your needs are to ensure that we are equipping you for the future.

312- Lutheran School Trends and Innovation -Dr.Alan Freeman

Together we will examine the current trends impacting Lutheran schools and the innovative practices and ideas of Lutheran school ministries as we Go and Make Disciples for Life!

313-Kindergarten through 6th grade STEM -Anwar Rodriguez

Hands on learning through faith-based projects.

314- Theatre Arts Education and Creating Performances in a Christian School-Deana Occhipinti

Come network and share ideas and resources on implementing Theatre Arts into your school community and lesson planning. Great for Performing Arts Teachers and Classroom Teachers alike! Ms. Occhipinti has knowledge and experience in everything from big-scale musicals to fun skits for chapel.

315-Coaching Culture - Mark Cheney

In this session, we'll be discussing the creation and coaching of culture in your classroom, team, and organization. We'll focus on establishing, sustaining, and protecting the culture needed for high performance.

316- Lutheran Association of Resource Specialists (LARS) Discussion & Fellowship-Christina Carrillo

This Ed Camp will be a discussion of how our resource programs in Lutheran schools can best support all of our students' unique needs while they continue to learn in a Christian environment.

317-Building a Relevant and Engaging Computer Science Program -Dan Kober

Building, developing, and growing a meaningful and scaffolded Computer Science program can be daunting and/or challenging. We will focus on discussing ways to start and build upon a computer science program that provides students with engaging and challenging course options.

318- 21st Century Project-Based Learning - Sara Bridgman

Discussing project-based learning and real-world application ideas for the classroom, facilitated through the lens of a middle school STEM teacher.

319-Beyond the Art Show: Sharing Art & Creative Projects in the Digital Age -Kim Gilman Presenting, Connecting, and Responding to art work is so important that they are National Visual Arts Standards. This EdCamp explores ways to share creative classroom projects with students, parents, and the community using digital technology. The resources presented are suitable both for art classrooms and classrooms that produce creative projects.

2022 Lutheran Educators Conference

Monday - Ed Camps

2:30 - 3:15

401-10 Ways to Do More with Google Classroom - Matt Miller

You know the basics of Google Classroom. But how can it help you be more efficient? Can it take learning to the next level? This presentation will give you ideas to level up Google Classroom -- and learning --in your classroom.

402- Have we become so results-driven that we've forgotten about relationships? Rev. Nathan Huse

We can get so caught up in accomplishing everyday tasks that we often miss that God has placed people all around us. A beautiful thing happens when we embrace a culture of relationship, discipleship, community, and empowerment over performance.

403- Myths vs. Facts - Your School Safety Questions Answered - Adam Coughran School safety can be a complicated and confusing topic, but it doesn't have to be. With many vendors promoting school safety products ranging from software to door locks to cameras, seemingly everyone has the one solution to make your school safer. In addition, many teachers, as well as parents, have probably offered a variety of suggestions to improve campus security. Added all together, it can be an overwhelming issue in a field school administrators are not certificated in: safety and security.

Have your questions and concerns about products, policy, or just about any other safety topic answered by a national leading safety and security expert in this interactive session about school safety and security.

404- Post-pandemic Christian Education: What has changed?-Dean-o

Between school, church and home - how will kids embrace God's Word? Who is responsible? Is media-driven learning the answer? Do kids stand a chance in this "new" world? What is the role of parents? What does the next-generation K-5 curriculum look like? What is the desired outcome for the kids we minister to?

405- Finding Ways to Bring Family Literacy into Your School -Jennie Lovie

Let's actively brainstorm together how to embrace Family Literacy in our uniquely designed school or classroom settings. Together we will use collaboration, research based resources, and take away templates to design literacy activities and events.

406-Increasing Public Speaking and Debating Skills through a Project Pedagogy -Gary Rybold

This session details a project pedagogy that required students to speak and assess in every class meeting. A public speaking curriculum, developed for high school students, provided at no charge, can be accessed at: www.projectcom.org

This module describes instructor facilitation of the pedagogy where students develop mastery of argument construction, researching, impromptu and extemporaneous speaking, and collaborating effectively in small groups. The curriculum seeks to strengthen student identity as a confident speaker and effective critical thinker. Students create papers and speeches for every class meeting for assessment by other students using critical thinking concepts.

Reviewing the free course materials on the website before the session would make the training module more accessible. Materials for the session will also be provided. While this session stands on its own, attending the critical thinking workshop at 1:30 will aid in the understanding of the pedagogy.

407-Dramatically reduce your ELA grading and planning time!-Jon Corippo

Author Jon Corippo will be sharing tricks and tips that will make your ELA teaching "easy button" easy and also help you to have massive academic growth. Jon has taught in the K-8 and HS ELA area for nearly 20 years and will be sharing his very best tips and tricks! You'll leave with a bunch of templates you can use right away.

408-Induction Inquiry - Lori Jaeger

Seeking to clear your California teaching credential? Come to the Induction Ed Camp to learn more about the Induction program at Concordia University Irvine. The Induction program provides new teachers with a collaborative learning environment, opportunities to improve teaching strategies and promotes a variety of professional development. Meet some of our instructors, mentors and Induction students who are ready to share the big ideas surrounding the Induction process. Together we can help you understand the next steps in clearing your California preliminary credential.

409-Game-Based Assessments -Ben Hunter

Come discuss Game-Based Assessments and how they can stimulate engagement and retention. What has worked, or not worked, in your classroom?

410- Expanding Your School Ministry -Rev.Billy Brath

Facility & Financial Planning. Pastor Billy will walk through the theory and process to expand your school ministries. This work is central to Billy's role with LCEF and the PSD, so come ready to apply these ideas to your school and maybe take the next step.

411- Connect and Collaborate with Other Early Childhood Educators in the PSD- Mary Wolfinbarger

Come and meet other early childhood educators in our district. Hear about exciting new ways that we will be able to use technology to connect with each other and offer you resources. It will also be an opportunity to share what your needs are to ensure that we are equipping you for the future.

412- Lutheran School Trends and Innovation -Dr.Alan Freeman

Together we will examine the current trends impacting Lutheran schools and the innovative practices and ideas of Lutheran school ministries as we Go and Make Disciples for Life!

413- Classroom Management. Let's talk...-Chris Hauser

Let's have a frank discussion about classroom management techniques. What works? What does not work? What are the trends in education? How to motivate students to engage in learning and not engage in other nefarious activities? Bring your questions and ideas.